

Christy Grinton

Born Toronto Ontario. Graduated from the university of Guelph with a Wildlife Biologist degree in 1990.

I worked as a zookeeper at the Toronto Metro Zoo.

Have shot film back in the day and developed images in the darkroom.

Moved to BC in 1990 and did wildlife surveys in Old growth and clear cut blocks.

Moved to Kamloops, and did fisheries mapping.

Always loved photography.

I love Travel and have shot wildlife all over the world including Africa/Australia/Iceland/England/Scotland/Dubai/France/United States/Costa Rica/Spain but still love Vancouver Island as my most fav place to shoot.

Have had images published in

Beautiful British Columbia

Canadian Geographic

Canadian Wildlife

Sea Side Magazine

Images in the Sooke Fine Art Show

Photographer of the year for the Sidney Camera Club.

Won awards from the Journal of Wildlife Photography
