Bio for Steve Smith

Steve is past Vice President Victoria Camera Club (VCC), led VCC location shoots, brought in outside speakers and co-led the VCC lighting interest group. He was a member of VCC external competitions committee which curated members' images for entry into external competitions. Steve is a retired Professional Forester.

He has received around 200 acceptances and a collection of gold medals in international and domestic photography competitions. His images have been displayed in curated exhibitions. Steve has judged domestic and international photography competitions.

He has taught degree program courses at UBC and is now teaching photography classes at Panorama Rec. Centre.

Steve has made presentations at scientific and professional conferences, to First Nations Annual Tribal Gathering and to several photography clubs.

Website https://treehunterphotos.ca/