Mike has worked as an independent photographer and filmmaker for 35+ years. His work has taken him through much of Europe, Africa, South America, and to 48 American states and all 10 Canadian provinces. Film work has taken Mike to the summit of Mt. Kilimanjaro, the jungles of Rwanda, and the wetlands of Brazil. His most recent filming adventures have been to the Antarctic peninsula and the frozen east coast of Svalbard. Mike has worked at two Olympic Games. He has written, directed and produced over 350 short films and documentaries.